WHERE?

- Gelatinefabriek, Armand Hertzstraat 21, 3500 Hasselt, Belgium

During the Open Heritage Days (Open Monumentendagen) on 9, 10 and 11 September the site of the former Gelatine Factory in Hasselt will host a free new art event: 'Alternate Current'.

For three days professional art organisations, studios, workshops and independent artists from the European region of Maastricht, Aachen and Hasselt will be plugged into the same electrical current. More than 40 artists and musicians from Belgium, Germany and the Netherlands will be putting the rusty fuseboxes of the Gelatinefabriek to the test.

PROGRAMME

- Neue Positionen - part 1: 'Sound and Space', an exhibition project with sound art and contemporary art by Paul Devens, Frederik De Wilde, Pieter Geenen and Erwin Stache
- Neue Positionen - part 2: 'KlankTafel Concerten', 'Live Radio' and an exhibition of works by Euregional interdisciplinary artists (Thomas Rutgers, Etienne van Berlo, De TekenKingz, Stefan Cools, Mike Kramer, Sjaak Jobses, Patrick Bolk, Found Tapes Exhibition, ...)
- exhibitions of works by the artists of VONK vzw (Hasselt), Atelierhaus Aachen and the Nonexistinggroup
- open studios: Koen Vanmechelen, Jaak Geerits, Irene Judong, Zephyr Wildlife Reproductions (Dirk Claesen), RaJulez, ...
